The Eaquals Charter for Course Participants

Accredited Members of Eaquals undergo regular inspections, and courses accredited by Eaquals are regularly verified, to ensure that:

1 Before the course:

- 1.1 Information: all information and publicity is accurate, complete and accessible, and includes:
  - an outline of the course aims and course components;
  - a stipulated number of taught hours and study hours per course;
  - a stipulated maximum number of course participants per group;
  - a specified age-range for courses;
  - a clear description of the cost of tuition and of other services and materials
  - transparent terms and conditions of business.
- 1.2 Enrolment: admission and enrolment procedures are efficient and transparent
- 1.3 Placement: effective procedures are in place to determine course participants' level of competence and/or other needs.

2 During the course:

There is a focus on providing course participants with opportunities for successful learning, in particular:

- 2.1 Standards: teaching and educational standards are high, and yield effective learning;
- 2.2 Teaching/Training Staff: qualified and competent teachers or trainers experienced in teaching the target language work under the supervision of an appropriately qualified academic manager;
- 2.3 Premises and Facilities: the premises and facilities and/or learning platforms for language learning and/or teacher training are suitable for the purpose;
- 2.4 Curriculum and Course Planning: the course of study is structured, is divided into levels of proficiency, and is appropriate;
- 2.5 Resources: resources and materials used are relevant to the needs of course participants and to the course objectives;
- 2.6 Teaching and Learning: the teaching and learning/training methods and techniques used are appropriate and effective for the course participants;
- 2.7 Quality Control: there is regular observation of teaching or sampling of training by the course provider;
- 2.8 Support and Advice: there are opportunities for course participants to discuss their individual questions and concerns, and to obtain information and advice;
- 2.9 Services: administration and auxiliary services are efficient;
- 2.10 Assessment: evaluation of and feedback on course participants' progress is regular and appropriate.

3 At the end of the course:

- 3.1 Certification: end-of-course assessment procedures are valid and soundly administered, and reports and certificates of attainment based on these are given to course participants and/or stakeholders;
- 3.2 Client Feedback: there is an opportunity for course participants and/or stakeholders to give feedback on the course.
